Capital Campaign Update: Kick -Off was held this last weekend with soup after the Jan. 28-29 Masses. Mailings went out. Home visits are underway to seek pledges. A thermometer board will be showing the $ to date. Gym project could be started by mid-March. Three companies were interviewed for the construction manager position and the Dean Snyder Company was selected. Planning meetings will be held each Friday. Meeting with Jose, putting out bids, cost estimates will all be in the works to present to the Archdiocese Building Committee. Discussion was held on keeping, removing and/or replacing the playground.

Finance Report: None ( Working on W-2's and 1099's)

Guild Report: None

Liturgy Report: None (Meeting this week. Had been postponed)

Pastoral Minister Report: None

Fr. Burkle Report: 6 people involved in RCIA classes. Meeting will be held in February to let couples know of marriage guidelines.

Old Business: Salary change (hours vs. salaried employees) did not happen. This was dropped right near the effective date.

New Business: Parish Mission will be held in March in Stacyville. Concerns were shared about the bulletin, etc. getting on the parish website. Could someone help with this? Is there a program that works better?

Rod Koch moved to adjourn at 7:55 p.m. Marge Markham gave the second.
