Meeting called to order by chairperson, Keith Mayer at 7:00 p.m. Tom Thome moved to accept the corrected minutes (attendance changes).

Finance Report: Fr. shared reports for 4th quarter. Discussion was held on the split of shared expenses for the Cluster. Presently Visitation and Sacred Heart do 50/50. A 65/35 split was discussed. Rent for office space/rectory and bulletin expenses will be added. Rod Koch moved to have Sacred Heart pay 65% and Visitation 35% starting Sept. 1. Tom seconded. Motion carried.

Guild Report: none

Pastoral Minister Report: none

Fr. Burkle Report: The building project feasibility study has been going well. Interviews have been held with more being scheduled. On Sept. 8 the results will be shared. A survey will also be in the pews for anyone who had not interviewed or filled out a survey already.

Old Business: Comments were shared on the first Summer BBQ Bash. A thank you was read from the Stefls. The overall feeling was that it went well for the first time. Some thoughts to consider: auction earlier, brownies/bars as well as pie, shorter work shifts (not as much for 2nd shift to do), pie containers needed, knives for meat, games?, too much ketchup and mustard. 250-300 were served. Auction raised $2900. A thank you will be put in the bulletin.

New Business: The possibility of doing a soup supper in January was discussed.

Next Mtg: October 25 - 7:00 p.m.

Marge Markham moved to adjourn at 7:49 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by Audrey Christensen, Sec'y
